

About this Form

For certain application types, a judge will need a statement of means to make a decision. It is used to provide the court with an overall picture of your financial situation.

There are three sections of this form that you must complete:

Section A
Case Details

Section B
Income and Expenses

Section C
Assets and Liabilities

Section D
Sign and Date

Information on Completing this Form

- You must ensure that your Statement of Means is true and accurate to the best of your knowledge and belief. You may be required to provide documentary evidence to the court that supports your Statement of Means. This might include payslips, bank statements, utility bills, or other evidence.
- You must provide a weekly breakdown of your income and expenditure in Section B.
- You might want to get legal advice to get a better understanding of the information that is required when completing a Statement of Means.
- For more information, please visit services.courts.ie/family-law.

ⓘ If you need assistance in completing this Statement of Means, you may wish to contact your solicitor (if you have one), the Money Advice and Budgeting Service or a Citizen's Advice Centre. The Money Advice and Budgeting Service (MABS) is a free and confidential service for people who are having problems with money management and debt.
